SECTION 4

Complainant’s authorisation for the Financial Services Commission to proceed with the investigation.

I would like the Financial Services Commission (“FSC”) to consider my complaint.

I understand that:

1. The FSC will need to access personal details, including financial information about me, in order to deal with me complaint effectively. The FSC will handle such information in the strictest confidence unless compelled by law to disclose this information.
2. The FSC and other organizations and official bodies, including the entity/person that I am complaining about/against, have the authority to exchange information about this complaint.
3. My case may be published for educational purposes or be reflected in the FSC’s statistics but without identifying the parties involved.
4. Complaints are handled in a different manner from the courts of law and the FSC would not usually require parties to attend hearings in person but may resolve disputes by correspondence, telephone or other means of communication.
5. If at any time I am not satisfied with the process or the outcome, I am free to take the matter to the court or elsewhere in which case, the FSC will close its files.

By signing this Complaint Form, I:

1. Declare that, I have provided the information to the best of my knowledge and believe the same to be true.
2. Give my consent to the financial entity/individual against which/who I am complaining, to release whatever information which may be considered necessary to handle my complaint to the FSC.
3. Give consent to the exchange of information relevant to the complaint between the Office of the FSC and the entity/person and other bodies.
4. Acknowledge that the files of the FSC and the financial institution/individual, against which I am complaining, and discussions between me, the financial entity/individual and the FSC, are confidential, and will not be used in any subsequent legal or other proceedings. In addition, the FSC and staff of the Office of the FSC and advisors will not be called to testify.

Signature of the Complainant/Account Holder or Policyholder	Date	Signature of Authorized Representative(s) (if applicable)	Date

Even if you have appointed someone else to make the complaint on your behalf, your authorized representative should also sign and so indicate the capacity. If you are signing on behalf of a business, please also give your position in that business. If the account is joint, all account holders must sign.
